

Internal Memo

Interim Guidance Memo Number: 302.020.01

Date: 11/25/2024

To: Facilities Mailroom Staff, Wardens, Assistant Wardens, Captains

From: Commissioner Paul Schnell

Interim Guidance: Policy 302.020.01 Mail

Effective 11/20/2024, DOC is changing provisions in the policy listed below, which will be incorporated into the policy document in a future policy revision. These changes in procedure are part of DOC's emergency action to stop drug contraband from entering facilities in the mail.

What Policies Are Being Affected and/or Replaced:

- Policy 302.020 Mail: Special/legal mail is changed to require the following:
  - Legal mail
    - The definition of legal mail is changed to only include attorney-client privileged mail which, as of December 2, 2024, will use the TextBehind verification process. Current legal mail procedures will only apply to attorney-client privileged mail moving forward.
    - The legal mail delivery log will only be used for attorney-client privileged mail.
    - Bulk mail from law firms, such as advertising material, does not qualify as legal mail. Correspondence to/from DOC attorneys is not legal mail.
  - Special mail
    - Special mail must use official envelopes and official letterhead representing the office from which it came. If it does not, it must be returned to sender.
    - All Special Mail must be tested for contraband.
    - Special Mail will no longer be opened in the presence of the incarcerated person unless it is explicitly marked privileged or confidential on the envelope.
    - Special mail must not be sealed by the incarcerated person when sending it out.

- The Special Mail list is expanded to include government, official, and non-attorney-client privileged mail. Correspondence to incarcerated person from state and federal courts will now be treated as special mail that can be sent directly to facilities, rather than legal mail that must use the TextBehind process.

Explanation for the Change:

The DOC has entered into an emergency contract with TextBehind® to process standard and attorney-client privileged mail. Because of this, changes in the way DOC processes Special Mail need to occur. These changes in procedure are part of DOC's emergency action to stop drug contraband from entering facilities in the mail.

Should you have any questions related to Policy 302.020, please contact Associate Warden Lisa Connors, Policy Chair, or Captain Ashlee Berts. Thank you for your immediate attention to this change while we work make broader revisions to this policy in the coming year.

Definition Changes in Policy 302.020 "Mail"

- Attorney-client privileged mail is defined as:
  - "Attorney-client privileged mail – correspondence:
    - to or from licensed attorneys or established groups of attorneys involved in legal representation of the specific incarcerated person the correspondence is addressed to; and
    - that meets the protection that applicable law provides for confidential attorney-client communications, such as the provision of legal advice or disclosure of sensitive details attorneys need to build defense strategies."
- Legal mail is deleted.
  - ~~Legal mail – correspondence to or from a court, court staff, licensed attorneys, and established groups of attorneys involved in the representation of offenders in judicial proceedings. The destination or return address must clearly indicate that it is to or from one of these sources in order to be treated as legal mail. Mail to/from an attorney or law firm must contain the attorney's name in the destination or return address along with terms such as "attorney at law" or "law offices." Abbreviations such as "Esq.," L.L.P. or P.A., or phrases such as "legal mail" and "attorney/client privileged" are not sufficient to identify mail as legal. Bulk mail from law firms, such as advertising material, does not qualify as legal mail. Correspondence to/from DOC attorneys is not legal mail.~~
- Special mail is defined as:

- “Special Mail – correspondence to or from those state and federal officials, using official envelopes and letterhead, using the business address of the state or federal official, designated by the department mail committee. The destination or return address must clearly indicate it is to or from one of these sources (using the business address) in order to be treated as special mail. ~~Special mail does not need to be logged as legal mail and is opened only in the offender’s presence.”~~

Under Procedures in Policy 302.020

- Every reference to “legal mail” in policy 302.020 should be replaced with and read as “attorney-client privileged mail”.
- Sections L. 1 – 5 are deleted and replaced with the below procedures.
- “Section L. Attorney-client privileged and Special mail
  1. Incoming mail that meets the definition of attorney-client privileged mail must have a QR code from TextBehind on the envelope. Attorney-client privileged mail without a verified QR code will be returned to sender.
    - a. When delivering attorney-client privileged mail to an incarcerated person, staff must:
      - i. Scan the QR code to verify its legitimacy; and
      - ii. In the presence of the incarcerated person, staff must test the envelope and contents for contraband (if possible).
      - iii. Skim the contents to ensure that it is legal in nature.
      - iv. Provide the envelope and contents to the offender.
      - v. If the item contains contraband, staff must write an incident report and enter the envelope and contents into evidence.
    - b. The incarcerated person must sign acknowledging receipt of attorney-client privileged mail.
    - c. Mailroom staff in adult facilities must log all incoming and outgoing attorney-client privileged mail.
    - d. An incoming or outgoing item purporting to be attorney-client privileged mail that fails to meet the policy requirements for designation as attorney-client privileged mail will be returned to sender.
  2. Incoming mail meeting the definition of special mail and listed in the Special Mail List (attached) will be reviewed by staff for confidential or privileged markings or labels.
    - a. If no such marking exists, special mail will be opened and inspected by staff who must:
      - i. Open the envelope, remove the contents, search the contents for physical contraband, test for contraband (if possible), and skim the

- contents to ensure that it is official in nature.
- ii. If the item passes inspection, staff must deliver the envelope and contents to the incarcerated person.
- b. If marked confidential or privileged, special mail will be opened in the presence of the incarcerated person by staff who must:
    - i. Open the envelope, remove the contents, search the contents for physical contraband, test for contraband (if possible), and skim the contents to ensure that it is official in nature.
    - ii. If the item passes inspection, staff must deliver the envelope and contents to the incarcerated person.
  - c. An incoming or outgoing item purporting to be special mail that fails to meet the policy requirements for designation as special mail will be returned to sender.
3. Questionable special mail should be forwarded to a supervisor for processing per policy 302.020-Mail, Proc. L(3).
  4. If the item contains contraband, staff must write an incident report and enter the envelope and contents into evidence.
  5. Mailroom staff in adult facilities must log all incoming and outgoing attorney-client privileged mail in the incarcerated person mail computer application.”
