Title: Secured Units – Juvenile Facilities
Effective Date: ~~4/16/19~~01/24/25

PURPOSE: To ensure secured units provide safe housing for ~~youth residents who actively present safety and security concerns~~, while continuing to provide ~~ing~~ youth residents access to basic rights.

APPLICABILITY: MCF-Red Wing juvenile facility

DEFINITIONS:

~~Administrative hold – placement in a secured unit for non-discipline related reasons such as to prevent victimization and provide for the integrity of an investigation.~~

Administrative separation – youth separation from peers because of the seriousness of their behavior or because their behavior cannot be addressed by placing them in a safety-stabilization period, as prescribed under Minnesota Rules 2960.0740, subpart 1.

Basic rights – meals, medication, mail, bedding, clothing, showers, phone calls, etc. (See Minnesota Rule 2960.0050, Subp. 1.)

~~Continuing observation status – as defined in Policy 500.300, “Mental Health Observation.”~~

~~Disciplinary room time – a penalty or sanction issued according to the facility’s discipline plan that requires a resident to remain in a room.~~

Medical separation – youth are separated from peers because staff must respond to a medical event that threatens the safety of the youth, peers, or staff.

Modified activities status – higher level of physical security ~~used~~ employed for youth residents who are assaultive or whose actions present an immediate threat to staff safety ~~are beyond the control of staff.~~

Modified living conditions – restrictions placed on access to certain items ~~when as a consequence of the youth’s resident’s~~ misuse of those items presents a safety risk ~~a specific item~~ (for example, e.g. bedding, mattress, pillow, clothing, meals, water).

Open living unit – therapeutic group living environment in which youth residents have unrestricted access to facility programs and services.

Safety-based separation – youth are separated from peers and ongoing programming in a locked or unlocked area from which they are not free to leave for the amount of time necessary to ensure the safety of youth, staff, and facility operations. Includes administrative separation, medical separation, and safety-stabilization period. (See Policy 301.078, “Safety-Based Separation.”)

Safety stabilization period (SSP) – youth are separated from peers, in a locked or unlocked room, to ensure the safety of the youth, peers, or facility staff.
